Parade Timings

The Specific parade timings are as follows:

Training Parade 3 Hours 1900 - 2200 hrs

Weekend Bivouacs 2.5 Days Fri 1900 hr - Dismissal Sun

Day parades and bivouac timings may vary dependant upon the activity, location and training requirement for night work / activities.

Parade Card

1. The Commanding Officers priority for attendance in 1995 is as follows:

- a. Ex K 95;
- b. Individual Trade / Promotion Courses; and
- c. Ex Barbarossa 95.

2. This Parade Card details those parades which constitute Home Training for purpose of pay.

3. As courses do not constitute Home Training Parades, Students and Instructors are eligible for Additional Training, except where the member attends the course as an alternate parade or alternate camp.

4. Enlistment - in the Military Forces entails serious obligations under the Defence Act and these obligations continue, unless the soldier is sooner lawfully discharged, dismissed, or removed, until the expiration of his / her engagement.

5. Leave - You may be granted leave from home training activities on application to your orderly room provided you give 2 weeks notice of your intention. The conditions under which is granted will be advised to you at the time of your application. Should you repeatedly be absent from parades without requesting leave you will be deemed as Absent Without Leave (AWOL). You will then be classified as non effective and your discharge will be sought.

6. Efficiency - GRes - Under the provisions of Australian Military Regulations (AMR) 503, 504 and 506, members are classified as "efficient" each training year. Members classified as non efficient may be discharged from the GRes. To be classified as efficient you must:

- a. complete the minimum period of service as advised by the Commanding Officer;
- b. attend Small Arms training;
- c. perform satisfactory service; and

d. pass Basic Fitness Test (BFA) annually.

7. Pay - The normal period of training for which you will receive pay is 26 days per year. You can be authorised additional training with pay up to 70 days per year. Pay for periods of continuous training will be credited to your nominated bank account at the completion of that activity. Pay for weekend activities and Tuesday night parades is credited monthly normally on the second Tuesday of the month. It is advisable to maintain a record of your days.

8. Dress - Uniform is to be worn at all parades. Details of Orders of Dress will be promulgated on Unit Notice Boards. It is an offence under AMR & O 1332 to wear uniform or part thereof other than when travelling to and from parades without the Commanding Officers approval.

9. Discharge - Members finding it impossible to attend parades are to make a written application to the Commanding Officer via their sub-unit orderly rooms requesting either discharge, transfer or re-posting. Full reasons for the request must be given. Three months notice of intention to discharge is required.

10. Delivering up Equipment - If discharge is approved, you are required to return all articles of equipment, uniforms, books etc on issue to you and obtain a Unit receipt for such items. Failure to deliver up government property when ordered to do so is an offence and you will be liable to prosecution under the Defence Act.

11. Prolonged Leave - When leave of more than 2 months is granted you are required to return all items issued to you to your unit Q Store where they will be held until you return to duty.

12. Damage or Loss of Uniform or Equipment - Loss or damage to service property caused by your neglect or unfair wear and tear is to be paid for by you.

13. Injury or Illness sustained during training or travelling to and from training is to be reported immediately to unit headquarters. Compensation may depend on your prompt action.

14. Personal Occurrences - Any changes to your personal circumstances such as your address, next of kin, marital status or civilian employment must be reported by you to unit headquarters via your sub unit orderly room within 7 days. Failure to comply with this may disadvantage you financially.
